1. Scope

This policy identifies the statutory duty placed on Swansea University (SU) and its faculties, professional service units (PSU), staff and students undertaking international travel (travel outside of the United Kingdom) on authorised university related business.

The policy applies to:

- Faculty and PSU staff and students partaking in international travel for authorised university related business.
- Each member of staff or student who carries out international travel on authorised university related business.
- Members of staff or students who are based in other countries who travel internationally on university related business.
- Staff and students travelling with other organisations for example on joint research projects, etc.

This policy does not apply to any international travel not associated with the University.

2. Introduction

International travel is a regular part of work and study at Swansea University so it is important all staff and students working and travelling internationally are aware of the potential risks and follow the required guidance and protocols to help keep themselves and those they may be travelling with safe. Our insurance providers UMAL have stipulated this process is required to be carried out prior to travel.

As with other types of travel, international travel comes with its own risks, therefore procedures have been put in place to help travellers prepare and to ensure appropriate support is in place in the event they become injured, ill, or there is disruption to the trip.

Where fieldwork/ work placement is undertaken internationally, then additional off campus activity and fieldwork/ placement documentation must also be completed and approved. Both policies and associated documents are available on the H&S web pages.

This policy has been developed to ensure SU is exercising its duty of care to staff and students who take part in international travel. It also ensures due diligence is carried out to assess each trip and, each trip is authorised at the appropriate level. The International Travel Guidance document has been developed to provide step by step guidance on how to complete a suitable and sufficient risk assessment for international travel and determine the level of authorisation required.

3. Definitions

- International Travel: Travel to any destination outside of outside of the United Kingdom (UK)*.
 - Please see appendix 1 for a full definition of the UK.

- Authorisation: Agreement and approval from the appropriate level within the University for the travel to go ahead, based on the information provided in the international travel risk assessment.
- University Purpose: Work whether teaching, research or other that is carried out on behalf of Swansea University,
- Staff: An employee of Swansea University.
- Student: A person enrolled on a course at Swansea University.
- Other: Someone not employed or enrolled at Swansea University.
- Home country: Country from which the person travelling holds a passport. If the travelling person holds passports from more than one country, their Home Country will be the country they have declared to Swansea University in writing. The term Home Country also includes the person's Country of Permanent Assignment or Country of Permanent Residence.
- Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office Travel Advice (FCDO): UK Government website that provide travel advice.
- Crisis24 Horizon: Travel risk management organisation appointed by the University insurance providers UMAL, to provide support and guidance for international travel.

* Where the traveller is employed by Swansea University but has another home country other than the UK, then this traveller would then be expected to complete this process for travel to any other country including the UK.

 A person outside of Swansea University's employment or enrolment would have to follow the policies and processes of their employer or University they are enrolled at. This situation may occur where Swansea University work in partnership with other businesses/ universities and would also apply to Honorary and Affiliate members of Swansea University as they are not considered or legally employees of Swansea University.

Faculties and PSUs are required to have arrangements in place which ensure that suitable and sufficient international travel risk assessments are carried out and approved or denied.

Suitable and sufficient: Is a term used in Health and Safety regulations It means that not only must all the relevant aspects of the risk be considered, but the detail of the risk assessment must be proportional to the potential impact of the harm and the likelihood of it being realised (i.e., the level of risk). The international travel risk assessment templates and guidance documents have been developed to reflect the level of detail, and hazards that must be considered for different levels of risk.

- Where a person/s has a disability or existing health condition and has made this known to the risk assessor, then this must be taken into account when carrying out the risk assessment. This is to allow for any reasonable adjustments to be made prior to the travel going ahead.
- Individuals cannot be excluded based on a protected characteristic as per the Equality Act 2010.

The International Travel Approval Process flowchart HSA10153-6 is available from link provided.

To ensure the health, safety and wellbeing of all staff and students while travelling internationally, SU utilises the Government Foreign, Commonwealth and Development Office Travel Advice (FCDO), and Crisis24 Horizon risk rating (appointed by the University insurance cover providers, UMAL) to determine the level of authorisation required.

The FCDO travel advice is constantly reviewed for each country or territory to ensure it includes up-to-date information and advice on the most relevant issues for people visiting or living there. It covers a range of topics, including entry requirements, safety and security issues, health risks, details about local laws and information on the threat from terrorism.
